"Promising" On Two Glades Bridges Narrowed From The Political To The Contractors

Clearly Brothers Have Ordered Steel And Only Await Shipping Date To Begin Work

A stubborn fight against elusive politics, both in this county and in Tallahassee, and including a grand jury report, has finally brought the four-year promising spree down to the contractor who reports that the "all-clear" signal has been given him, on two Glades bridges.

Vincent R. Gorbham, Vice President of Clearly Brothers, reports that "nothing prevents the commencement of the job, except the desire to interfere with traffic as little as possible. We have ordered the steel for these bridges, and just as soon as delivery date is assured, we will carry the work along so that the steel may be used immediately on its arrival."

"There is no financial objection to immediate commencement of the work," he continued, "as we have a very large and satisfactory understanding with the State Road Department."

Mr. Gorbham stated that the Chosen bridge construction is now at a standstill awaiting steel, and would not now be in that condition had it not been for unreliable delivery date promises for that steel.

Country Club of the Everglades by Kathleen Livingston

Wednesday was a grand day for golf, in fact it was just the beginning for Rayley Weeks turning in an 87. She would probably have won an 82, but blew up on a couple of holes when she was in the green.

Flood Control Is Victim Of 'Ikes' Team Of Confusion

The Republicans ran around the country promising an earthly utopia—lower taxes, riddance of fur coat and freezer boys, and soft peddling of the bureaucrats!

They actually came to Washington—at least some of them did—believing in the "salvation for the country" thru Republican victory.

This Mormon Elder made Secretary of Agriculture, we're afraid, has about decided to call his church's foreign missionaries into Washington and put them to work on the USDA's $6000 thousand employees.

It is learning the facts of politics the hard way—Dulles' and Tamm's self-commencing hot air pumps spurred on by their individual beliefs in a "wing-back" publicity; the Quaker-like hasn't included himself in any touchdown plays so far, depending on his backfield men to indulge in team play.

It must remember that a quarterback must use his abilities to run, pass, kick, side-step and utilize his interference—in interference to opposing players, not to the team!

We have about the same team in the Capitol Building, just a few substitutes who can't resist the picture-taking boys and the whoop-la writers.

The same team that authorized this Overall Flood Control program will push-ute limelight boys aside and get down to brass tacks soon.

Remember a quarterback named HOLLAND, a triple-threat back named SMATHERS, and par-excellence interference runner named DWIGHT ROGERS?—just "Watch 'em."

Order Of Rainbow Elects Officers

Officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of the Rainbow Girls Monday night. Worthy advisor, Joan Rabin, Worthy assistant advisor, Liska Humphries, Charly, Jane Norris; Hope, Doris Burke; Faith, Gale Allison; Recorder, Marilyn Burry and Treasurer, Pat Tatum.

Miss Rabin will announce her appointive stations at a later meeting. A public installation of officers will be held at 8 p.m., May 4, at the Benevolent Hall. The Rainbow girls will start rehearsals next week on their musical production, "Flying High." Funds from the musical will be used on their project at the Masonic Home.

Coinciding with heavy runs at all major marketing centers the Glades Livestock Market held its second high sale last Monday, with prices somewhat weaker.

There were 998 head, with 560 were steers and 479's were to slaughter. Cows and calves about equalled at 185 and 184 respectively. Yearlings at 29, bulls 17 and heifers 14 completed the list.

Mr. George Gerahy who has been servicing sales in the Glades but living in Miami, moved to Belle Glade to make his permanent home.

A note of appreciation was received recently from 2 1/2 Raymond, Miss. from overseas: "I want to thank you for sending me the home town paper. You don't know what it means to me to come in and lie down on my bunk and read the life I used to know so well."

Dogs To Dinners Involved Daily In City Affairs

Fifty Odd Employees Bring Problems To All Departments

A local resident reports that dogs made strings of her new dress, a couple of extra nice slips, and a few other miscellaneous items such as pajama tops, etc., pulling them from the clothes line at night. This is a further argument about licensing dogs and keeping them home or training them with better manners—cause some dogs are going to get shot.

Among the jobs of the City is to feed the prisoners, and recently this item has caused no particular flurry or head scratching.

The City Fathers reapportioned Ken Lutz and Sid Smith as members of the City Planning Board. Other members are Sara Creech, Paul Davidson and S. C. Herrington.

The city employees have just completed the organization of a Credit Union with some 50- (Continued on page 4)

Gay Nineties Queen To Add Variety To Good and Bad Acts

The publicity man for the local Lions Club honestly announces in a prepared story that "exceptional talent (good and bad) will afford relief from good acting" in announcing the Gay Nineties Revue scheduled for next Tuesday evening in the High School Gym at eight o'clock.

The Lions are full of church and high school and a lot of hustle in their efforts to help the local High School Glue Club with something which the entire community should be proud, and all Lions will be in there "pitching" to make the home talent worth while seeing.

The boys with the big roar have some very entertaining talent, known as the "Machine Shop" headed by the acetylene torcher Dale Ellis as well as other numbers worth hearing.

The Glue Club will be doing their stuff—and they do it quite well, thank you.

A queen will be announced, crowned and presented to the audience during the show.

The entire proceeds will inure to the benefit of the Glue Club, so put-down that even if you can't go and must give them to someone else—help the kids that have helped themselves and US.

Rev. Shirley E. Green, of the National Council of Agricultural Labor and an organization composed of its grove owners and others, working thru and with an advisory group from the Glades, has conducted during past several months an investigation into schooling for migrant children, both white and colored.

Indication of the conclusion from the study were evident at a recent meeting when preliminary findings were discussed, and they are significant, as follows:

1. While the problem of education for migrant children affects both white and negro schools, it is predominantly a problem of the negro schools.

2. The major approach to solution lies in the field of adult education.

3. That the schools in the Glades are in a very favorable position for coping with the educational problems of the migrant children. Several factors influence this view point, such as: the interest displayed by the County Superintendent, his staff, teachers and local community groups are a very favorable position for coping with the educational problems of the migrant children. Several factors influence this view point, such as: the interest displayed by the County Superintendent, his staff, teachers and local community groups are a very favorable position for coping with the educational problems of the migrant children.

The combined judgment of 103 teachers and principals (35 white, 68 colored) in the Glades Area Schools rates migrant children as average or slightly below average in respect to a wide variety of personality traits. Points worthy of special note are:

1. Significant number of boys are a very favorable position for coping with the educational problems of the migrant children. Several factors influence this view point, such as: the interest displayed by the County Superintendent, his staff, teachers and local community groups are a very favorable position for coping with the educational problems of the migrant children.

2. Heavy below average ratings in regard to respect for property, cleanliness and feeling of belonging.

Some fourteen personality traits were graded by the teachers.

GAY NINETIES REVUE

THREE ZANIES

The principal problems felt by the teachers out of sixteen noted were:

1. Overcrowding and overloading. 2. Retardation in reading. 3. Absence.

4. Parental indifference. In the final analysis the educational problem of migrant children is not an isolated one. It is intertwined with other migrant problems, principally transiency, low income, housing and health.

Seventeen members attended the meeting.

National Pastime Getting Healthy Interest Among Population

With four 15-men Little League and four farm teams, keeping more than 100 boys between twelve boys, and approximately 20 each with the high school and Ramblers, Belle Glade is going all out for baseball this spring.

For those who like baseball there's always a game going in the afternoon and early night hours. The following is a report of the past week's activities:

Michael

Smith hit a double to the plate, the lead, Challancin and Hogue were on the mound for the losers, with Puckett catching. Butch Busch was doing the catching for the Elks.

They the Legion batters began to boom with a lead-off single by Hudsphett and a sharp double by Crider to stretch his double to a triple, but was cut down at third by Sands. The Rotary left fielder, Hubner, runs a free trip to first. A couple of passed balls and Forsee's sacrifice sent Hubner home with the second run. The first two runs of the game were made by the Rotarsmen.

They the second inning the Rotarsmen sent nine men to bat. A two-base on balls, a stolen base, an error, a fielder's choice, a hit batsman and a sharp single by Chamblee, put the Rotary ahead eight to four. The Rotary scored again in the fourth and fifth innings.

Gamble started on the mound for the Rotarsmen with Burry catching. Baldwin was handling the pitching for the Legion, with Van Landingham behind the plate.

ALMIGHTY GOD, A PRAYER FOR UNITY

BY DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

As we stand here at this moment, my future associates in the executive branch of the government join me in beseeching that Thou will make full and complete our dedication to the service of the people in this throng and their fellow citizens everywhere. Give us, we pray, the power to discern clearly right from wrong and allow all our words and actions to be governed thereby and by the laws of this land.

Especially we pray that our concern shall be for the people, regardless of station, race or calling. May co-operation be permitted and be the mutual aim of those who, under the concept of our Constitution, hold to different political beliefs, so that all may work for the good of our beloved country and for Thy glory.

AMEN.

THIS WEEK'S SERMONETTE THE PLAN OF SALVATION

By Elder A. A. Johnson

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints

In the midst of the Christian world there are many conflicting theories in relations to man's existence here and hereafter. Also as to the duties he owes to himself, his religion and his fellowmen and creator. It is an undisputable question that some knowledge of, "where we came from? Why we are here? and where we go after we leave this probation," is essential to the happiness of everyone.

The teachings of this church, backed by Bible Scriptures, are that we lived as spiritual children with our Father in heaven and our elder brother Jesus Christ.

The Lord speaking to Jeremiah said, "before I formed thee I knew thee and before thou camest forth I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations." Jer. 1:5. The Lord to Job, "Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth, when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?" Job. 38: 27-28. These and many more Biblical Scriptures will prove that man existed as a spirit before coming to this earth.

A Wise Creator placed man upon the earth for very specific reasons, namely: to gain a body of flesh and bones, to prove himself, and to gain experience. "This determines our status in the life to come or hereafter. Jesus marked the path and led the way whereby we may go back into the presence of our Father.

There are four principles that everyone must accept and do in order to get back into His Kingdom, where He dwells. These principles are faith, repentance, baptism by immersion and Hollingsworth, Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Dooley giving the devotional.

There was a group discussion of the conclusion of the study book, "Towards Understanding the Bible."

Attending were Mrs. E. M. Van Landingham, Mrs. Ivan Van Horn, Mrs. Jane Veal, Mrs. M. M. Sabiston, Mrs. George Farnall, Mrs. D. W. Harris, Mrs. C. J. Shuck, Mrs. Hugh Bratley, Mrs. R. L. Fox, Mrs. N. T. Taylor, Mrs. H. V. Draa, Mrs. Dooley and Mrs. Hollingsworth.

SPRING

The holy spirit of the Spring is working silently. George MacDonald, Earth, with her thousand voices praises God.

— Coleridge. Human hope and faith should join in nature's grand harmony, and, if on minor key, make music in the heart.

— Mary Baker Eddy. The time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in the land.

— Song of Solomon. Flowers may beckon towards us, but they speak toward heaven and God.

— Henry Ward Beecher. The giving earth remembers And only men forget.

— John G. Neihardt. The reason men don't have so much to say is they don't have a chance to say it.

CROSS COUNTRY CHATTER with Mac White

Last night was kind of rugged. I was bottling back from Miami—which means I was driving my trailer and out a trailer. I left the trailer and four new automobiles at Miami for another truck driver
to haul to Key West.

Hall between Oak Hill
and New Smyrna my right eye caught a quick flash in the east distance. I turned. It weren't for my physical visual acuity tests. I probably wouldn't have seen it, I pulled onto the shoulder, lighted some flares and walked back driver
to haul to Key West.

A New York car was lying on its side. Its front was like an accordion where it had smacked a utility pole. The driver was wedged in between the steering wheel and the seat. He was hysterical. A woman sitting next to him was out cold. There was a little baby in her arms and the baby was crying. I turned my flashlight on the speedometer. It was jammed at 90 miles an hour.

I took the baby out of the car. Apparently she wasn't hurt—just frightened. I wrapped her in a blanket and laid her on the seat of my tractor. Then I flagged down a motorist with my flashlight

and told him to highball up ahead and call an ambulance and the law. I couldn't tell much about the couple's injuries and my first aid training warned me. "When I got some blankets around them and applied pressure to the guy's left arm, which was bleeding badly at the wrist,
I managed to apply a
make-shift tourniquet."

A little later, I filed my report with the State Highway Patrolman and my duty was done. As I later said to me,
"Mac—that's a mighty good emergency job you performed on that arm. You may have saved his life."

"That's all part of a professional truck driver's job, Mac." I told him. "But not many people know it."

"For you know—I still keep thinking about my speedometer jammed at 90. Why do people do it?"

the men filled one side of the assembly, showing that they are hungry for the Gospel being so ably preached by Rev. W. E.
Taylor. We are praying for him to help us do his will and carry the true Gospel to men, women, and children. New Bethel Baptist School in Belle Glade plans to pay us a visit soon to inspire us in our work.
The May Queen contest was quite a successful affair for the little school, where Mrs. Evelyn P. Mitchell is principal. The names of the contestants and winners will be announced next week. Every one is looking forward to May Day on May 7, 1953. This year promises to be most outstanding.

NFA News
Last Friday night, April 16,
we were very fortunate in having a very successful NFA and NHA Banquet. Our main speaker, Mr. Herman Hudson, a resident graduate in the field of Vocational Agriculture, from Florida A. and M. College.

The program began with a song "Lift Every Voice and Sing" by the audience, followed by a prayer and Scripture reading by a NFA member, then the final opening number was the opening ceremony by the NFA officers.

In Mr. Hudson's address he outlined to the patrons the new Vocational Agriculture and Vocational Home Making have in the life of American families.
He explained to the audience the meaning of the NFA Creed and how a new farmer of America member can shape his life socially, morally, religiously and also how his business can be operated cooperatively. He stressed that phase of the NFA Creed
that states, "The Life of Service is the Life that Counts."

We were very happy to have present over fifty parents at this banquet. We are proud to know how impressed they are over the work of these two organizations, and we feel that they are 100 percent behind our program.
